About the College
Proceeds from the Tee For Tuition golf tournament help support St. Louis Community College students and programs. STLCC is the largest higher education institution in the region and the second largest in Missouri. The college offers more than 100 degree and certificate programs. In addition to STLCC's traditional academic curriculum, the college continues to expand its programs for today's knowledge – and technology-based economy. STLCC annually serves more than 80,000 students through credit, continuing education and workforce training programs. The college's service area spans 718 square miles with four campuses, two satellite locations and two centers focused on workforce needs. Each location has many unique features that enable the college to meet the diverse needs of the community.

Annual Economic Impact
- STLCC associate degree graduates earn, on average, $13,300 more annually.
- STLCC's economic impact in the St. Louis area is $2.5 billion

Foundation Mission
The St. Louis Community College Foundation solicits private financial support to further the mission of St. Louis Community College.
