Family size is based on the number of individuals listed and claimed on the IRS tax return when transferred directly from the IRS and unchanged. Your information was either not transferred directly from the IRS, has been updated on the FAFSA, or there is a discrepancy. In these situations, institutions are required to verify this information.

Family Size – Includes the following:

- The student.
- The student's parents, even if the student is not living with them. Exclude a parent who has died or is not living in the household because of separation or divorce. Include a parent who is on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces apart from the family.
- The student's siblings if the following are true:
 - They live with the student's parents (or live apart because of college enrollment),
 - They receive more than half of their support from the student's parents, and
 - They will continue to receive more than half their support from the student's parents during the award year.
- Other persons if the following are true:
 - They live with the student's parents,
 - They receive more than half of their support from the student's parents, and
 - They will continue to receive more than half of their support from the student's parents during the award year.

If more space is needed, provide a separate page with the student's name and ID number at the top.
