About St. Louis Community College

Through a changing economy and sharp increases in the price of higher education, STLCC has provided opportunity for all. As the largest higher educational institution in the region, STLCC has served more than 1.3 million students. Over 50% of households in the St. Louis area are represented in our former and current student body. Since 1962, St. Louis Community College has held fast to the fundamental belief that education has the power to lift us up — as individuals, as communities and as a city.

Today, STLCC offers associate degrees, certificates, college transfer degrees, career development and workforce training. We have 22 college-transfer options and nearly 80 career programs. The College's goal is to position our students, and our region for success by providing trained workers in health care, information technology, advanced manufacturing, automotive/diesel technology, culinary/ hospitality, and truck driving, among others. As we launch students into new and better careers, four-year degrees and richer lives, we strengthen St. Louis one student at a time.
