Ready to RECONNECT

I loved how convenient this was for me since it was online! I could relax and learn in the comfort of my home!”
— Justin, Continuing Education Student

Online classes provide a way to see old friends and meet new friends in a comfortable, totally safe way. As an instructor, I love the interaction with students. Students push me to learn more and present more so that the class stays fresh and interesting.”
— Maureen, Instructor of Fine Arts

On the Operations side of Continuing Education, we strive to be the best in customer service for our students. We consider our students family and enjoy connecting with them, hearing their ideas and questions, and helping them navigate our programming. Our priority is meeting them where they are and helping them enjoy their class!”

Project Management
Project managers play a critical role in planning, executing, monitoring, controlling and finishing efforts. Working knowledge of these skills is recognized by the Project Management Institute (PMI) through various levels of certification. This course helps you to prepare for the PMP certification exam by presenting the critical concepts together with the core knowledge areas covered in the exam. Topics covered include the process groups and relationships, terminology and decision-making practice. Session attendance in this course counts toward the project management training criteria of 35 hours that is required to register for the PMP exam. This practical learning experience prepares the student for the PMP certification exam by lecture, online exercises, working sessions and practice exams. Program utilizes Registered Educational Provider (REP) materials.

Inventing 101
Have a great idea for a product, app or other invention? Explore a broad overview of the inventing process and methods to bring your idea to market. We’ll discuss factors to consider when sharing your idea and ways to navigate relationships with patent attorneys, product developers, industry professionals and others. Learn about non-disclosure agreements, prior art, public disclosure risks, ways to protect your idea prior to patent, cost-saving strategies and more.

Patent, Trademark and Copyright: Protect Your Idea or Invention
Need to know how to easily become “Patent Pending?” Explore the different types of Intellectual Property (IP), including patents, trademarks, copyrights, etc., that provide protection for inventions, writings, art, and other original and creative work. Learn about the length and type of protections granted under each filing and gain tips on how to avoid infringing on existing IPs or losing patent protection. Discover how to submit filings yourself for under $100 via the United States Patent and Trademark Office’s website.

Research, Read and Understand Patents
The jargon and legalese of patents can be daunting. But, as an inventor, it’s critical to conduct basic patent research to determine if your idea already exists, Discover how to better read and understand the content and key parts of a patent. Learn the meaning of and requirements for terms such as “claims,” “prior art,” “infringement” and more. Uncover how to improve your research inquiries on free websites and how to use what you learn from other patents to aid development of your own.

How to Manufacture Your First Product in the U.S. and Abroad
Learn the “do’s and don’ts” of manufacturing, how to select the best manufacturer based upon your product type, and how the manufacturing process works in the U.S. and internationally. Explore the considerations for obtaining a product sample, initial order requirements, and troubleshooting tips for issues and bad production runs. Uncover tips about how to avoid costly manufacturing mistakes during production and discover local and international companies that provide clients with product sourcing, translation services and facilitation of offshore manufacturing.

Business Start-Up 101: Become an Entrepreneur
There are many different types of entrepreneurs: you can become a traditional entrepreneur (selling a product, service or idea), a “techpreneur” (technology inventor + entrepreneur), a “socialpreneur” (social worker + entrepreneur), an “educpreneur” (educator + entrepreneur) and more. Learn about the different paths and start your journey to entrepreneurship with knowledge and resources to help you launch your enterprise.

Show Me the Money! Explore Start-Up Funding
St. Louis ranks third in the U.S. in terms of best entrepreneurial communities and offers access to a wealth of funding and start-up resources. Our city boasts several new inventor and business programs, services and incubators designed to help you get started. Learn how to take advantage of funding, training programs, networks, mentoring and other opportunities to help get your product or idea off the ground.

Crowdfunding: Kickstarter®, Indiegogo® and GoFundMe®
Crowdfunding campaigns can help you raise funds for your new product or idea, launch or grow a business, assist a non-profit organization or support a personal project or community cause. Learn about three of the most popular crowdfunding platforms and explore each of their differences, requirements, advantages, disadvantages and risks.

Launch Your Product
Gain valuable information about where you can immediately create your own storefront and begin selling your merchandise for free (or at a very low cost) online and/or at local retail outlets. With the knowledge gained in this course, you could save time and many overhead expenses associated with running a retail business.

Manufacture Your Clothing Products and Fashion Designs
Learn how cut-and-sew factories can help you through the entire process, from idea to design to product to sales to distribution. Gain an understanding about how these factories can convert your ideas and sketches into finished products through design development, pattern creation, pattern digitization, assembly, packaging and manufacturing. Discover how cut-and-sew factories can aid in launching your products within a shorter time than most manufacturers.

How to License Your Product or Idea Yourself
Discover the pros and cons of licensing versus the self-production of a new product. Learn how to secure a licensing deal yourself and gain tips to approach potential retailers, major brands, big box stores and other licensees. Also, find out how to structure and submit a video or one-page sales pitch online directly to targeted licensees to gain their interest and secure a licensing deal.

Launching a Crowdfunding Campaign? Not as Easy as You Think
Before you launch your first crowdfunding page on Kickstarter®, Indiegogo® or GoFundMe®, there are many factors you need to consider. Explore crowdfunding websites, review past and present pages launched by inventors and discuss factors to consider prior to launching your idea. Learn about the risks and components involved in setting up and managing a new or launched page. We’ll help find the best crowdfunding fit for your new idea and discuss what happens if your campaign succeeds or fails.

Quickly Find Valuable Inventor Help and Resources Online
Researching and collecting general data about your invention is daunting. Learn how to quickly gather inventor information, forms and videos from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) website. Discover how to extract the valuable content you need to gain a better understanding of the different forms of IP. Explore the various forms of IP (e.g., patent, trademark, trade secret and copyright), as well as the costs and filing processes.

Don’t Blow It: Best Practices to Maximize NSF I-Corp™ Funding
Explore the ins and outs of National Science Foundation’s (NSF’s) Innovation Corps (I-Corps™) program. The instructor, an I-Corps graduate, will share strategies to maximize the program’s benefits and information about business expenses, requests and reimbursements it will fund.

The People Ingredient: Working in an Animal Welfare Organization
If you're thinking about working or volunteering in an animal welfare agency, you'll need a variety of important “people” skills. You may be matching pets with new families, working with people surrendering their pets, educating adults and kids in the community, or interacting with other agency staff. Gain an overview of the many capabilities you'll need within animal welfare organizations. While there are many joys and rewards to working in animal welfare, there may be some sadness too; with this in mind, you’ll learn ways of coping with the inevitable heart-breaking side of the business. Animal Care Basics for Animal Welfare Workers
In this class, it's all about the animals! We'll cover basic health considerations including prevention measures and spay/neuter issues. Acquiring some knowledge of animal behavior is a vital key to safe handling for yourself and the animals you work with. You’ll learn about caring for and feeding a variety of animals, behavioral screening techniques and enrichment ideas to enhance quality of life for confined animals. You'll hear from several shelters who explain their basic animal care-taking operations. If you're interested in working directly with animals, this class is a must! ACE® Personal Trainer Certification Prep Course
Ready for a career change? Become a certified personal trainer! This course is designed to prepare you for the ACE Personal Trainer Certification Exam and to help you become an effective personal trainer. During this course, you'll focus on the ACE Integrated Fitness Training (ACE IFT) Model as a comprehensive system for designing individualized programs based on each client’s unique health, fitness and goals. You'll explore how to facilitate rapport, support adherence, promote self-efficacy and encourage behavior change in clients. In addition you'll learn to design programs that help clients improve posture, movement, flexibility, balance, core function, cardiorespiratory fitness, muscular endurance and strength. Due to the specialized nature of this class, you must be at least 18 years of age and have a high school diploma or high school equivalency. You must hold CPR/AED certification before taking the ACE Personal Trainer Certification Exam. A background check may be required for certification. Please review the “ACE Certification Candidate Handbook” (at acefitness.org/fitness-certifications/pdfs/Certification-Exam-Candidate-Handbook.pdf) for more information on eligibility. Fee includes cost of exam, textbook, study guide and sample test. Additional fee to retake exam. Voucher for exam must be used within six months of date received. Registration/withdrawal deadline: Feb. 3. No refunds after that date. Class not eligible for senior scholarship. Funding assistance may be available through WIOA and SkillUP; please inquire.

Learning the Mac® as a Windows® Switcher
For those raised on Windows PCs, the intuitive design of Macs can be anything but. Many item names, locations and behaviors on Mac are similar, but remain different enough from PC to invite confusion. This introduction to the “Apple® way” will lean on what you already know, translating PC language and function to Mac equivalents. Why is the menu bar stuck to the top of the screen? Why doesn’t an app close when it has no more windows? Where did right-click go? We’ll explore ways to use a Mac efficiently. Prerequisite: Basic computer familiarity with a recent version of Windows.

Beyond Broadcast: TV in the Age of Streaming
“What’s on TV tonight?” used to be a straightforward question answered easily by the TV Guide or channel surfing. But in the era of smart TVs, streaming subscriptions, “cord cutting” and a multitude of on-demand services, finding an answer can now be challenging. This course will lay out the transition from broadcast channels in the analog era, to the digital age, the smart device revolution, and the dominance of streaming services. How we consume media has changed; learn to navigate your many viewing choices, figure out “what’s on,” watch across your multiple devices, and understand what still needs an antenna.

WordPress® for Business
WordPress® is the most popular software for building and hosting personal websites on the Internet, but it’s increasingly also the engine of richly-designed and complex business sites. Want to promote and sell your photography? Run a subscription-based coaching practice? Make a living building sites for other small businesses? This course will cover the features of WordPress® and its multitude of add-ons. You’ll learn about themes and plugins (many of them free) that can make your site do more than share articles. This class will emphasize ways to enable e-commerce, as well as considerations about extra security, maintenance, and monitoring requirements you should consider once a business WordPress site goes live to the public.

Shipping Container Buildings in the U.S.
After 20 years of being shipped around the world, a container reaches the end of its lifespan. However, a container can live on if you use it to build a house, an office, an apartment building, a swimming pool, or a replica of the Globe Theatre where Shakespeare’s plays were performed in London in the 1600’s. See some amazing things Americans have built with used shipping containers.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Core Class

Introduction to Digital Photography
If you’d like to take memorable photos, but you don’t understand your camera, this course is designed for you. Each week, you’ll learn two or three principles of photography. Then, through demonstration and class discussion, you’ll learn how to apply those principles to whichever camera you own. Between classes, you’ll put those principles to work by shooting a weekly assignment and returning with your photos for a personal, detailed critique. By the end of this course, you’ll understand technical terms (e.g., aperture, shutter speed and ISO), as well as artistic terms (e.g., rule of thirds, leading lines and depth of field). Course meets the curriculum requirements for Digital Photography Essentials Program.

WRITING

The Craft of Writing
Unleash the Writer Within
Each one of us has a special story to tell. But, it can be hard in this busy, modern world to access that creativity. During this class, you’ll peel away the familiar outer layers of doubt, distraction and writer’s block. You’ll get to the core of what you’re actually trying to say, and learn to say it with language that is irreparably unique to you. When the writer within is unleashed, the words will come freely and the stories we need to tell will finally occur to us. While not a class requirement, those interested in sharing their work will receive the benefit of a thorough, productive critique from the instructor and fellow students.

Grammar You Should Know
After graduating from high school and even college, many of us still have gaps and lapses in our grammar and spelling. For example, should you use “who” or “whom?” What’s the difference between “effect” and “affect”? The years may have chipped away at your knowledge of English, but this class will apply a fresh coat of literacy to your writing. This class was formerly called Writing Basics Brush-Up (What You Should Have Learned in High School!)

The Nuts and Bolts of Investing
Learn the “tools of the trade” for an individual investor! We will explain the fundamentals and key features of stocks, bonds, mutual funds and ETFs (exchange traded funds). Find out when (and when not) to use a particular tool. We will discuss how and when each is taxed in a qualified (e.g., IRA) and non-qualified account. Interest, dividends, expense ratio, capital gains, maturity date, rate of return, stock index, “the market” and many other financial terms will be explained. Come and learn how to outfit your financial toolbox. This is an ideal follow up to the Foundations of investing class.

Tax Strategies in a Volatile Climate
Uncover long-term, multi-generational tax strategies aimed at saving significant dollars through retirement and beyond. 2018 brought changed tax laws that significantly impacted the tax strategies many pre-retirees can utilize to maximize their income, pay less taxes over the course of their lives, and pass their estate on as efficiently as possible. Come examine those changes and take a dive into qualified versus non-qualified monies, insurance, wills and trusts, and advanced tax strategies to maximize your long-term plan.

Financial Planning for Women
Most women will be solely in charge of their own finances at some point in their lives. This class focuses on the unique financial concerns facing women and what’s important to them. Strategies for preparing for retirement and living in retirement will be presented along with how to balance this with your other goals such as education of your children or assisting elderly parents. We will address what to expect from Social Security, how to plan for the unexpected, and managing risk like market fluctuation, inflation and the rising costs of health care along with long term care. Ideal for women between the ages of 35-70.

Mitigating Taxes in Retirement
A clear strategy to address the possibility income and capital gains tax increases should be an essential part of a successful retirement strategy. Taxes don't necessarily go down in the retirement years and the possibility of increases without a well-thought out and implemented plan can change retirement goals and the face of retirement dramatically. For this class, we will bring the new rules to life and explore strategies on how to properly coordinate your benefit with the other goals such as education of your children or assisting elderly parents.

Advanced Social Security
Social Security always seems to be a hot-button issue. Will the program continue to exist, especially now that COVID-19 has impacted the economy? This class will not only talk about the economic viability of Social Security, but will also share how Social Security is calculated and how you can decide when it is best for you to claim. We’ll discuss how to properly coordinate your benefit with your tax plan, your income plan, your estate plan, and even your long-term care plan. Coordination is the name of the game. And, if not handled properly, claiming Social Security incorrectly can lead to decreased lifetime benefits and, perhaps, increased taxes.

Religion
Religion and Its Role in World History
Join this exciting journey as we explore the question, “What is religion?” Discussion includes a brief survey of world history and will examine how religion has influenced every period. This class is a recommended prerequisite for the Eastern Religions and Western/Monotheistic Religions courses, which discuss five major world religions.

Eastern Religions
Gain an introduction to the teachings, history, development and current challenges of Hinduism and Buddhism. Expand your knowledge of these belief systems and discuss differences and similarities of the major world religions. It is recommended that this course be taken in conjunction with Religion and Its Role in World History and Western/Monotheistic Religions to provide a more complete view of major world religions.

Western/Monotheistic Religions
During each session, you’ll gain an understanding of the teachings, history, development and current challenges of Judaism, Christianity and Islam. Expand your knowledge of other belief systems and gain the opportunity to discuss differences and similarities of major world religions. It is recommended that this course be taken in conjunction with Religion and Its Role in World History and Eastern Religions to provide a more complete view of major world religions.

Forgiveness: The Key to Happiness
Love can heal the world, and forgiveness is the catalyst for making it happen. Hear inspirational stories of miraculous personal healing that radical forgiveness can produce and gain perspective on why forgiveness is so important for well-being. Explore steps of forgiveness that, performed outside of the classroom, can release grievances and heal emotional hurts. This course on forgiveness is psychologically based and not focused on any particular religious view of forgiveness; no religious or faith-based view of forgiveness is required or practice it.

Genealogy
Outdated or Not?
Using a Library Effectively
There is a vast array of genealogical information available at the library. Learn about different types of libraries, how to locate them and how to effectively use them for your research!

African American Genealogy Basics
Discover tools and tips for compiling and furthering the family histories of African American ancestors. Prerequisite: Windows® computer skills. Suited for beginning to intermediate researchers. Bring jump drive, notebook, pencil and family research notes to class. Precourse materials available at www.leafseeker.com/resources.html.

Genealogy Brick Walls – Where Should I Go From Here?
Online resources may leave holes, gaps and incorrect information in your genealogical search. Learn how to explore both online and off using various problem-solving techniques. You must have an active St. Louis County Library card. It is recommended that you have taken a beginning class from either St. Louis Genealogical Society or STLCC with at least six months of research experience prior to this course.

Using Online Newspaper
Expand Your Family
Researchers too often look to newspapers for one item: obituaries. Today, more online newspapers help users gather additional information used in research. Learn about these resources, where to locate them online and how to effectively use them. Prerequisites: Windows® computer skills and an active St. Louis County Library card.

Researching Cemeteries
Discover how to research ancestral burial grounds and various death records effectively to aid the family tree. Bring notebook, pencil, jump drive and family research notes to class. Pre-course materials are available at www.leafseeker.com/resources.html.

Living Beyond the Basics
Learn how to plan a research strategy and make use of alternative sources that can move your genealogy research along. Prerequisite: Prior experience in basic genealogy. Bring notebook, pencil, jump drive and family research notes to class. Pre-course materials available at leafseeker.com/resources.html.

History of Clowns: From Jesters to Krusty
Clowns have appeared in most cultures throughout history, dating as far back as Ancient Egypt in 2400 BC. These clowns would eventually evolve into the court jesters of medieval Europe, who “would openly mock food, drink, and the monarchy, all while behaving maniacally for a laugh.” Today, the clown seems to have two opposite roles in America: to amuse us or to scare us.

Motorcycle Safety Basic Rider Course

Basic Rider Course (MSF-BRC) is geared toward the novice motorcyclist or scooter operator and also provides an excellent skills update for returning riders or those with experience but no previous formal training. The course consists of classroom and on-bike instruction with furnished motorcycles or scooters (loaner scooters are limited – check availability before registering; personal scooters are also permitted). Those who successfully complete the course will be issued a completion card from the Missouri Motorcycle Safety Program that serves as a waiver for the road test portion of the Missouri license endorsement. Students must be at least 15 and a half years of age and able to ride a bicycle. Those under 18 years of age must have a release form signed by a legal guardian or parent. Students must bring a three-quarter or full helmet that meets Department of Transportation standards (loaner helmets available), over ankle boots with two-inch or lower heels, full finger gloves, long-sleeved jacket or heavy shirt, eye protection, sturdy pants and a photo ID. At the discretion of the instructors, students who are unable to safely operate the motorcycles will be dismissed from class for their own protection and the safety of the group. No refunds will be given if you are unable to complete the class for any reason. Class held rain or shine. You must arrive on time for class; late arrivals will not be admitted. Visit stlcc.edu/motorcycle for detailed information. A health screening form will be sent prior to class. Form must be completed to participate in class.* W

Motorcycle Skills: Basic Bike Bonding Rider Course
Bike bonding refers to the connection and interaction between a rider and motorcycle. Good bike bonding helps riders automate their physical skills so they can devote more attention to road and traffic conditions (searching and evaluating). The objective of this course is to develop and practice the basic skills beyond those acquired in the Basic Rider Course (BRC). The course is designed to provide sufficient control skills to handle a motorcycle in more challenging street situations in a low risk, effective and enjoyable training environment. The BBBRC is also an excellent refresher course for those who may not have ridden for a period of time since their BRC or who desire additional practice time. You must have completed the BRC or have sufficient riding skills and experience to operate a motorcycle with basic proficiency. Students must have a motorcycle endorsement or motorcycle permit. There is no classroom portion to this course. The BBBRC is a recommended prerequisite for the novice rider; however, it is not required. Must have motorcycle permit or endorsement on driver's license and be 18 years of age or older. Those under 18 years of age must have a release form signed by a legal guardian or parent. Required items include DOT-approved three-quarter or full helmet (loaner helmets available), over ankle boots with two-inch or lower heels, full fingered gloves, long-sleeved jacket or heavy shirt, eye protection, sturdy pants and a photo ID. Loaner motorcycles provided. This is not a MO State waiver class. A health screening form will be sent prior to class. Motorcycle Skills: Ultimate Bike Bonding Rider Course
Bike bonding refers to the connection and interaction of the rider and motorcycle. Good bike bonding helps riders automate their physical skills so they can devote more attention to road and traffic conditions (searching and evaluating). This is a precision riding curriculum derived from police motorcycle training courses and consists of drills and skill circuits to improve a rider's performance. Controlled motorcycle operation and body positioning and emphasizing low-speed operation and control. By the end of the course, participants should be able to handle their motorcycle in a more precise and smooth manner. There is no classroom portion to this course. Participants must have completed their BRC and pass an on-site safety inspection. The BRC-2 or ARC are recommended prerequisites if the student has never taken a formal class for low speed maneuvers. Must have an endorsement on license, use their own street-legal insured motorcycle (no scooters permitted), and be 18 years of age or older. Required items include DOT-approved three-quarter or full helmet (loaner helmets available), over ankle boots with two-inch or lower heels, full fingered gloves, long-sleeved jacket or heavy shirt, eye protection, sturdy pants. A health screening form will be sent prior to class. Form must be completed to participate in class.* W MOTR-704 | 1 session | $66.50 | AGE 60+ | $99 REG P01 Sa 9 a.m. - 7 p.m. | Jeffrey Pittenger May 8 | FP-Highland Park, 117

Caregiving at Home or in a Facility: Which Is Better?
The need for caregiving in the home may occur suddenly from an illness or injury, or over a period of time due to chronic illness or aging. Many factors should be considered when the need for caregiving arises. Join us to explore and compare home- and facility-based options available when individuals need increased assistance with everyday tasks. Discussion about the range of services provided through home care agencies will include non-medical support (e.g., housekeeping, shopping and errands, bathing and personal care) as well as medical services (e.g., physical therapy, speech therapy, occupational therapy and wound care). We will explore community services such as adult day care and respite care that may be beneficial to caregivers who wish to continue providing care for their loved one in the community. Discussion will also cover the different levels of facility-based care including skilled nursing, assisted living and residential care.

Mastering Mindfulness
Are you easily affected by thoughts, feelings and sounds around you? Do you find meditation difficult because your mind is too busy? During this course, we’ll explore mindfulness as a method to improve your memory and find a clearer understanding of your purpose in life. Begin engaging the world with your entire mind instead of a fleeting, uncontrolled thought. Learn tools to stretch your mind in amazing ways.

Assertiveness for the Sensitive Person
Have you ever been told that you are “too nice” and need to be more assertive? Sensitive people tend to place a higher value on the needs and opinions of others than their own. This can result in an individual feeling powerless and unheard. Learn how powerful you really are and develop confidence to be more comfortably assertive.

Transitions and Transformations: Thriving in the Midst of Change
Life is a cycle of beginnings and endings. Transitions can be hard, but they hold a positive side, too. Transitions offer the opportunity to rethink the direction of our lives. In the second and third chapters of life, we may discover that our own life is similar to seasonal patterns of endings and beginnings. The fall season of life brings its own unique set of challenges and opportunities. You may lose a loved one or a job, experience divorce or illness, have an empty nest. Or, you become a new grandparent, embark on new job or move to a city. Whether the transition is positive or negative, we all have times when we ask ourselves, “How can I make it easier?” During this course, you’ll learn practical strategies to empower you in making future changes with increased confidence, less stress and the greater potential to thrive. Class is recommended for individuals 50 and older.

Healing Magic and Miracles
Are you stuck in a limited belief or situation and don’t know what the next step is, how to break through or move beyond? We are responsible for creating our lives, yet we have not been taught the techniques to do so in alignment with our desires. Learn those techniques, find your answers, break through to a more expanded experience, strengthen your intuition and connect with the powerful healing energies. We will cultivate the inspiration needed to break down the doors of past conditioning and enter the realm of joyful relationships, vibrant health, abundance and dreams come true. This is our goal.*
